

Student Field Safety Rights

Fieldwork environments are an extension of on-campus work, and adherence to a professional code of conduct is absolutely required. All GI field participants are required to report Title IX violations. If you or someone in your group needs to discuss or report an incident that has occurred while on a recent trip, please use the following contact numbers:

Front and back of Students Rights Card: Located in each communication device case.

